Family Workshop on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Hosted by University of Tennessee
Boling Center for Developmental Disabilities
Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities (LEND) and University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD) programs

DESCRIPTION

This free event will help you become a better advocate for a child with an intellectual and/or developmental disability (IDD). Information will be included on a variety of topics, including autism, intellectual disability, developmental delay, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), learning disabilities and others. Topic discussions will include question-and-answer sessions. You will also learn about local resources and organizations dedicated to helping those with IDD.

Lunch will be served. The first 40 families to register will receive a $20 gift card at the event. Childcare will not be provided.
